

Jeanne O. Bethers

JEANNE O. BETHERS

Pratt M. Bethers
*son of Ephriam & Edna
McGuire Bethers
Pratt and Jeanne O*

We also had an active publicity source at home to inform local people by radio and most of all, professional newspaper reporters. I shall mention one who had a set of initials that spelled JOB, which she did.

JEANNE O. BETHERS

The Cedar City High School was selected during the 1964-65 school year as one of forty-one secondary schools in the United States to participate in the National Association of Secondary School Principals Internship Project whose purpose is to train and give experience to prospective principals.

The principals who played a key role in the internship program were identified for setting high priorities on the improvement of the curriculum in their schools.

Our school was selected as one of twelve to report its program, participation, and progress for the NASSP at Miami Beach in January, 1965. Pratt M. Bethers was the principal, and J. Clair Morris, the intern.

Cedar City High School was selected by Kettering Foundation as one of the thirty-six national demonstration schools to demonstrate innovations in